Rubin 'Sings' For His Supper

MIAMI BEACH — Jerry Rubin had applause clumped on the end of his straggly beard and a maniacal look in his eyes. "If George McGovern doesn't win the nomination we are going to have Chicago right there on the convention floor," he vowed.

Rubin, a leader of the Youth International Party (Yippies), one of the Chicago 7 and correspondent for Mad Magazine, continued: "Our goal is to get down there on the floor and get as many delegates as we can high on dope."

Why?
"Why not?"

THIS BROKE up Leslie Bacon, the 20-year-old California girl charged with bombing the Capital a year ago and currently waiting trial, which, if found guilty, could buy her 80 years in prison.

Leslie, an attractive but "bottom-heavy" blonde and alleged leader of the Weathermen faction of SDS, is Rubin's running mate here at the convention, and the pair agreed to an exclusive interview with Knight Newspapers (KNI) in return for all they could eat in the Fontainebleau's Chez Bon Bon.

And eat they did. $16.94 worth.

"YOU'VE LOST WEIGHT, Jerry," began Tom Fox of the Philadelphia Daily News, the other interviewer. "I hope it's cancer."

Rubin, 5 foot 7 and down from 160 to 130, poked on his water. "I'm into yoga, men, and health food's. And I don't care if you are hostile as long as you're buying."

Told KNI was a big outfit with enough cash to handle the bill, Rubin ordered a steak, a health fruit salad, a double order of applesauce, three iced teas and a chocolate soda.

Miss Bacon, also about 5 foot 7 but weighing in at maybe 150, settled for a Chef's salad with roquefort, and when the waiter didn't bring the dressing, yelled in a voice that carried to the Eden Roc next door, "Where the $%&! is the roquefort?"

The waiter came on a dead run with a double order of dressing and if somebody thought to drop the proverbial pin, you'd of heard it.

THIS FROM the lips of a girl who looks like the Brownie Scout den mother she once was. Clear of complexion and as innocent-looking as the girl next door, Leslie Bacon, according to the FBI, is more notorious than Rubin. All he did was riot at the 1968 Democratic Convention in Chicago and curse Judge Julius Hoffman. Miss Bacon, according to the FBI, bombed the Capitol of the United States, causing $100,000 damage, the precise amount of her bond.

"She's the Mad Bomber," gloated Rubin. "Isn't she something?"

"You know, I was going to be a nun once," said Leslie, flashing her tooth-paste-commercial white teeth. "But I was thrown out of a Catholic high school for arguing with an 80-year-old nun over whether rapalm harmed humans. She said it didn't, just defoliated jungles. Can you imagine that?"

LESLIE, who says she didn't bomb anything and has yet to come to trial, said about a dozen FBI agents "tore down my front door and hauled me right out of the shower when they first arrested me. And then when we got to their car, they called J. Edgar Hoover or somebody and said, 'We've got that little object we've been looking for.' He was talking about me."

"Well let's talk about me," interrupted Rubin. "You guys shut up and let me rap for awhile."

"First, I'm here to write a book about this and the Republican convention."

"It'll be called 'A Roman Circus,'" said Leslie.

"No, no," said Rubin with more than a little aggravation. "Just shut up. It'll be called 'vote.'" with an exclamation point and me and Abbie Hoffman (Yippies and Chicago 7 and covering for Popular Mechanics) and Edlanders (lead singer of the Fugs) are writing it. We've got 25 agents out around the country digging up garbage on President Nixon and I guarantee you this book will be his seventh crisis and get his $%&? beat."

EAT HIS — 43, beat his 3/1, chance
Miss Bacon, not sounding like the girl next door and grossing out everyone within 100 yards.

Rubin gave her a hard look. "This is serious," he said. "These guys are buying our dinner."

"Now then," he continued, "we're working hard for McGovern and if he doesn't get the nomination, Ted Kennedy better or you won't be able to give this place away when we're done with it."

Why not Humphrey? He's as liberal as the others.

"He's a liar," snarled Miss Bacon, looking positively menacing.

RUBIN GAVE her another hard look.
"We've got it on good authority—hell, Mc-Govern's daughter is who, that if he's elected he'll drop the contempt of court charges against the Chicago 7. I face five years in the can, you know, and the appeals court should rule on our appeal any day now. I don't want to go to jail. Sure I'm for McGovern."

Rubin was done eating by now, and a couple of TV camera crews were waiting for him. "You guys done?" he asked.

"What's your vital statistics, sweetie?"
Fox asked Miss Bacon.

She replied by upsetting a glass of iced tea in his well-coiffed and oiled hair. The tea trickled down his nose and he caught the ice cubes in his hand. Cat-quick, he dumped them down Miss Bacon's olive drab tank shirt. She was obviously bra-less and gave a loud yip.
What would you expect a Yipie to do, yep?

LESLIE: "MAD BOMBER"

RUBIN: I'M INTO YOGA, MAN

DEMONSTRATIONS OCCURRING AT THE DEMOCRATIC AND
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTIONS IN JULY AND AUGUST, 1972

The SCLC has been publicly identified as a civil rights organization headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia.

The VVAW is a national veterans organization with a national office located in New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina."

The GLF is a loosely knit organization composed of homosexuals seeking to obtain "civil rights" for themselves in the United States.

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

Zippies are dissident Yippies who have broken away from the YIP because of dissatisfaction with YIP leadership.

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969, which resulted in the following three factions: Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The Weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS. The WSA continues to use the name SDS and maintains its national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois.

Weatherman, formerly a faction of SDS, controlled the SDS National Office from June, 1969, until its closing in February, 1970. Weatherman then entered an underground status and adopted a tactic of "strategic sabotage," with police and military installations designated as primary targets.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

RYM, a pro-communist revolutionary youth organization, was organized in 1969, first as a faction within the SDS, then as a separate group, with headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia. RYM was unsuccessful in attracting support and by mid-1970, it was practically defunct.

The PLP was founded in 1962, by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese Communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

At a conference sponsored by the PLP in Detroit, Michigan, on February 19, 1972 - February 21, 1972, Workers Action Movement (WAM) was established as a national organization headquarters in New York, New York, to continue the PLP's efforts to organize workers in the struggle for workers' rights, centering around the campaign for "30 hours work for 40 hours pay."

There were also religious type elements such as the Hari Krishna and the Jesus Freaks, along with many independent persons who were out for a good time or had nothing better to do. The Yippies and the Zippies were at odds with each other at the park because the Zippies felt the Yippies' leaders such as Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman were not revolutionaries.

Recipient offices sent informants to one or both of the national political conventions held in July and August, 1972, at Miami Beach.

Miami has in both instances furnished an evaluation of the services of these sources based on contact Agents of that office had with the various sources while affording coverage of disruptive activities in the Miami area. Recipient offices that had sources in Miami for MIREP should carefully review Miami airtel dated 8/29/72 and note any existing weaknesses on the part of sources rated fair or those who failed to contact the Miami Office. All recipients carefully debrief sources returning from the convention and make appropriate dissemination to various office files and other offices as warranted.

Re: MIDEW

MIREP

The Bureau feels that the overall quality of sources traveling to Miami for coverage during the conventions was excellent. It is readily apparent that Agents handling informants carefully selected the most qualified informants, thoroughly briefed them and laid the necessary ground work to insure quality coverage while in Miami. Without such informants and good direction both prior to departure and while being handled by other Agents in Miami the extensive comprehensive coverage of the disruptive groups and individuals would not have been possible.
